CLR's 57th AGM & CONFERENCE

Kelowna

SEPTEMBER 17 – 19, 2026

ABOUT US

The Construction Labour Relations Association of BC (CLR) was established in 1969 with the objective of bringing labour relations stability and security to contractors in BC's unionized construction sector. Today CLR provides a comprehensive range of Labour Relations services to our members. As our organization has developed over the last half-century, we have expanded our offerings to include Human Resource services, a Drug & Alcohol Policy, Health & Safety programs, and the Jurisdictional Assignment Plan (JAplan), alongside Education & Training initiatives.

THE CONFERENCE

CLR's 57th Annual General Meeting and Conference brings together the conversations, people, and perspectives that help move our industry forward. This year's theme is Moving Forward Together, and we're taking that momentum to Kelowna for three days of networking, learning, entertainment, and relaxation.

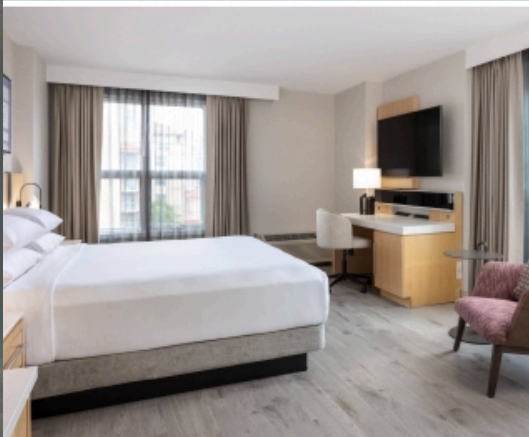

Thursday kicks off with four training sessions covering Recent Legal Case Review, Labour Relations and Employee Discipline, Health and Safety, and Psychological Safety with BCCWITT, followed by the Welcome Reception. With Vaughn Palmer confirmed as keynote speaker, a conference panel on Lessons Learned from Major Projects, Friday night entertainment, and a hospitality suite, there's plenty to look forward to. And when the sessions wrap, the Okanagan delivers, with Saturday activity options including golf at the Okanagan Golf Club's Bear Course, winery tours, or caving adventures.

Whether you're here to connect with colleagues, build new relationships, or simply recharge in a world-class setting, this is an event worth making time for. Join us September 17 to 19, 2026 at the Delta Hotels Grand Okanagan Resort in Kelowna, B.C.
